© Hebden Bridge Local History Society

Mathew Greenewood of Stansfield, 1641-2

Will: 28th March 1641-2 Probate: February 1641-2

(Borthwick reference: ECY Mathew Greenwood of Stansfield, February 1641-2)

In the name of God Amen. March 28 1641. Mathew Greenewood of Stansfield in the Countie of yorke Webster sicke in Bodie, yet of sound Memorie, did make and ordaine his last Will Nuncupative in manner following vizt: First commending his Soule into the hands of Almightie God and his Bodie to the Earth in stedfast hope of A glorious Resurreccion, then he did dispose of his temporall estate in this wise. His will and mynd was that his Funerall expences Church dues and lawfull debts should be discharged out of the whole. Item his Will was that then his Goods and Chattels should be divided into three equall parts, one third part whereof he gave unto Marie Greenewood his daughter, Item out of the other two parts he gave 2s to John Leigh, 2s to Susan Earneshaw, 2s to Anne Ingham, and js 4d to David Earneshaw to buy himself A Booke withall called; the Soules Humiliation. And all the Residue of the sayd two parts of his Goods and Chattels he gave equally unto his two sonnes John jurat Greenewood and James Greenewood makeing his sayd two sonnes ioynt Executors of this his last will. Dated maie 16 1641

Of this Will Nuncupative

these are witnesses

John Leigh

juratF

Luke Greenewood