© Marsden History Group

LUKE MARSDEN OF BOOTH

Administration Bond: 14th May 1735

Probable Burial: Luke Marsden of Bankbottom,15th June 1734, at Marsden St. Bartholomew's[1]

Borthwick reference: Luke Marsden of Booth, Marsden, May 1735, Administration Bond; Box 1655-1750, No.35

Administration Bond

14th May 1735

Size: 15⅛" x 12⅜", folded in two vertically Material: paper Condition: good

Seals: three very small red wax seals, emblem indecipherable

Stamps: four revenue stamps: three embossed, each value six pence, and one inked, value eight pence

Details of Bond:

Deceased:	Luke Marsden of Booth
Administrator:	John Marsden of Booth in Marsden in the parish of Almondbury, yeoman (he is also a bondsman)
Bondsmen:	John Marsden of Booth in Marsden in the parish of Almondbury, yeoman (puts mark) Luke Marsden of Marsden (signs) William Houldroyd of Marsden, yeoman (signs)
Lord of the Manor:	William Radcliffe, gentleman
Steward of Manor:	Abraham Radcliffe, gentleman
Surety:	£200
Witnesses:	John Marsden (signature different from John Marsden of Booth) Samuel Haigh (signs)
Notes:	On folio 2 verso is the number '85' in maroon ink (probably Manor of Marsden numbering). There is also the following note: 'John Marsden bond for Administration of his brother Luke goods./ 14th May 1735/'[2]

[1] recorded in the registers of Marsden St. Bartholomew's, and of the parish of Almondbury (burials at Marsden). Booth was very near Bank Bottom.

[2] the date is in a different hand to the rest of the note