© Marsden History Group

ELKANAH SHAW OF LINGARDS WOOD

Inventory: 20th November 1773 Administration Bond: 4th April 1774

Burial: Elkanah Shaw of Badger Hey, 19th November 1773, at St. Bartholomew's Church, Marsden, in the Body of the Chapel[1]

Borthwick reference: Elkanah Shaw of Lingards Wood, Marsden, clothier, April 1774, Inventory and Administration Bond; Box 1751-1780, No.35

Inventory

20th November 1773

Size: 8½" x 9½" Material: cream paper

Condition: small hole on right side of page

Folio 1 recto – inventory

November 20 Day 1773 this is A true and Perfect Invetary of the Goods and Chatles of Elknah Shaw Aprised by us this day and In the year of our Lord Above writen

		£	S	D
Purse and Aperel		2	2	0
One Close praser		0	12	0
towo Beds and beding		2	0	0
One pare of Lomes		1	5	0
two Chists		0	12	0
One Clock		1	10	0
One Couch Chear		0	11	0
One Coberd		0	9	0
one table		0	5	0
One Chist		0	5	...[2]
five Chears and five Stoles		0	5	0
One Litle table one Boiler pot		0	4	0
One Range and Coulrake and tangs	}
and Endirns	}	0	10	0
for wone tenter		1	10	0
for wool Died and un Died		30	0	0
for Six pieces		18	0	0
for pots and all huslement		0	10	0
		60	10	0

Sam[ue][1]. Haigh
Joshua Wrigley
Joshua Wrigley juner
Joseph Campinot[3]

---

1 in registers of Marsden St. Bartholomew's, where the detail 'in the Body of the Chapel' is given, and of the parish of Almondbury (Marsden burials)

2 illegible due to hole in paper; '0' gives the correct total

© Marsden History Group

Folio 1 verso – inventory, written at 90[0]

20th Nov 1773
Elkanah Shaw
of Lingards Wood
Inventory
/160/[4] 60 . 10 . 0

Administration Bond

4th April 1774

Size: 16⅜" x 13", folded in two vertically Material: cream paper

Condition: splits and small holes on folds

Seals: three red wafer seals, one still covered with paper square

Stamps: there are two revenue stamps, one embossed, value one shilling six pence, and one inked, value nine pence

Details of Bond:

Deceased:	Elkanah Shaw of Lingards Wood in Marsden, Clothier
Administratrix:	Martha Shaw of Lingard Wood in Marsden, widow of deceased (she is also bondswoman)
Bondswoman and bondsmen:	Martha Shaw of Lingard Wood in Marsden in the Parish of Almondbury, widow (puts mark) Joseph Campinot of Lingards Wood, clothier (signs) Joshua Wrigley the Younger of Badger Hey in Lingard Wood, clothier (signs)
Lord of the Manor:	William Radcliffe Esquire
Steward of Manor:	John Battye, gentleman
Surety:	£200
Witness:	Jo. Kaye (signs)
Notes:	Martha Shaw had no time to administer her husband's estate; she died within three months and was buried on 19th June 1774, and the administrators of her estate were also required to administer that of her husband. See Administration Bond of Martha Shaw 1775. On folio 2 verso is the number '160a' in maroon ink, probably Manor of Marsden numbering, and the following note: '4th April 1774 Martha Shaw Wid[o]w. & o[the]rs to Radcliffe Esq[ui]r[e]. and Battye Gent[leman] Admon Bond'

[3] all the valuers sign their names
[4] this number, in maroon ink, is probably Manor of Marsden numbering